Allison,

Given Nina's relationship with Joelle, I am thinking that while Christine is gone, Joelle might be the best one to send the report. What do you think?

Thanks Jayne. I'll circulate for signature here. Jeff has no objections. I haven't had a chance to talk to Joelle about the NWEA updates...been in grants training all morning and heading back after lunch. Will catch her as soon as I can.

Hi Allison,

I checked with Dave and he has not heard any objections so go ahead and use the final version (latest version with comments and final one are attached) to get Kate's signature. I'll have Dan sign after Kate and then send/email the signed letter to everyone.

Does Joelle agree on the written status reports to NWEA? With Christine gone for a few more weeks, should we go ahead and generate a report for either Lynda, Joelle or Dan to email to Nina?

Cheers,

Hi all, I checked-in with Dan and he understands the need to use the "fail" language at some point in the letter, but remains opposed to using it every time we reference our determination. Based on the emails, I have attached another version of the letter for review. The 2nd paragraph is unchanged. thanks

Hi All,

Dave gave Dan the letter to review and he disliked all of the “failed to submit” language and wanted to know in what instances can we use other language. See attached for his thoughts.

Hi All,

I believe that the attached letter has completed legal (including DOJ—see attached and email below) and programmatic review and is ready for managerial review. Let me know if I am wrong.

I’ll check in with my management to see if they want any changes. Can you do the same, Allison and Don?

Thanks again for your quick turnaround on the review.

Hi All,

Attached is the clean version. Before sending the letter to our management for review, I would like your input on whether the addressees are appropriate and the attorneys' input on whether to include NWEA's attorneys and/or our DOJ attorney as cc's.

Given my experience with our Office Director, Dan O (he makes extensive edits), I would like to give the letter to him early and let all of you see whether his edits are appropriate. As you know, Christine is out until mid-July.
